

Kendall is a traditional styled collection with a look that is sure to please. An updated look and interpretation of classic design styles along with an abundance of well considered details hint an air of antiquity but the styling is thoroughly fresh and new. Designed with today's modern home in mind, it is moderately scaled and highly functional with maximum storage capability. The pleasing Dark Merlot finish along with the attention to detail combine to create an inviting atmosphere that would compliment the décor of many of today's homes whose styles may range from classic, slightly modern or an eclectic combination somewhere in between.
