

SAN MARINO

San Marino is influenced by the Spanish Colonial designs of the 17th and 18th century. Bold and vigorous scrolls with ornate carvings along with ornate floral carved metal add to the Spanish styling. With its warm Sanibel finish and attention to detail, San Marino is sure to add grace and elegance to the décor of today's home.

FEATURES

WOOD CONSTRUCTION: Selected hardwoods and birch and olive ash burl veneer
Wood on wood drawer guides
English dovetail drawer construction

FINISH: Sanibel

COMMON FEATURES:

- Egg and dart undertop moulding
- Curved drawers with olive ash burl veneer and mitered moulding
- Upper end posts are moulded half round and are reeded
- Lower end posts are shaped and scrolled and have acanthus leaf carvings
- Plinth style base with turned bun feet
- Framed end panel appearance
- Antique brass hardware

